The “Barrier One” product line has been owned by several companies since its inception over 20 years ago. Our company, “Barrier One Concrete Admixtures”, has been manufacturing and marketing the Barrier One brand of products since 2020.

With such a strong brand name, we chose to keep the branding of “Barrier One” in place as well as the long-standing warranty program. Therefore, the warranties which have been provided over the years are still valid and we will continue to diligently service all past customers.

The company which filed bankruptcy, “Barrier One, Inc.”, was just one of many entities which previously owned the Barrier One product line. The company which filed bankruptcy, “Barrier One, Inc.”, however, is not the company which we purchased the product line from in 2020 and we are not involved with “Barrier One, Inc.” or its bankruptcy in any way, shape, or form whatsoever.

This is a true case of mistaken identity which our competitors are desperately trying to take advantage of.
